MCN welcomes your proposals for sessions for our 2024 Nonprofit Fundraising Conference which will take place in person at the Heritage Center of Brooklyn Center on Wednesday, July 24, 2024.

Session proposals are due on Friday, February 9 by 11:59 p.m. central.

1. Session Title (8 word maximum)

2. Session Description (150 word maximum)
   Write a description of your session as it could appear in the conference program. Introduce at least one learning objective into the description. If selected, you'll have an opportunity to update and refine your description.

3. Please identify the track that best matches your session:
   - Grant prospecting or writing
   - Relationship building
   - Philanthropic reform/disruption
   - Research/trends
   - Grantmaking

4. What level of prior knowledge is required for success in your session?
   The conference seeks all levels of learning although most accepted sessions will focus on advanced or intermediate levels.

   The selection committee also acknowledges that people can be at any level of learning regardless of where they are on their work journey.
   - General Prior Knowledge: Presenter(s) will provide presentations that would be useful to people of all knowledge and experience levels with the subject matter.
   - Intermediate Prior Knowledge: Presenters will define terms and spend some time providing basic information on the subject, but participants should have some familiarity related to the subject (i.e., lived experience or on-the-job experience).
   - Advanced Prior Knowledge: Participants should have advanced knowledge of/experience with the subject area to get the most out of the session.

5. What is your preferred length of your session?
   60 minutes or 75 minutes
6. How do you imagine engaging attendees? (Select 1-2)
   - Small group conversations/activities
   - Individual reflection (i.e. you give people time to self-reflect on an idea and how it impacts their work/life)
   - Whole group discussion (i.e. you share and then invite anyone to add their experience to the conversation)
   - Formal Presentation – “Lecture-style” presentations featuring one or two presenters. Formal presentations should include ample time for audience questions, discussion, and interaction
   - Responding to quizzes or polls
   - Multi-media (introducing video, sound, or another element)
   - Other
