MINNESOTA GRANTS DIRECTORY 2020

Over 50 Minnesota and National Funding Opportunities Responding to the Impacts of COVID-19 and Disaster Relief
Dear nonprofit community,

Every year you help nonprofit organizations secure hundreds of millions of grant dollars to make essential services available to Minnesota communities. As we face an era where the impacts of COVID-19 will likely result in increased demands on your organizations, operational challenges, and funding disruptions, your work in grantseeking will be vital. Unlike other sources of revenue for nonprofits, grant funding can be more nimble, flexible, and quick in times of crises.

For 33 years the Minnesota Council of Nonprofits (MCN) has worked to inform, promote, connect, and strengthen individual nonprofits and the nonprofit sector. The following Special Edition Grants Directory will provide you with an evolving list of funding opportunities. MCN offers profound appreciation for the funders that have stepped up with a speedy public commitment of funds to address the crisis, increased flexibility and partnership, and direct communications with their grantees. The Minnesota Council on Foundations also deserves special recognition for building leadership and collaboration at this crucial time. We are in this together.

While the world may seem grim at present, MCN finds hope and inspiration in the nonprofit sector even though we are experiencing something unprecedented for most of us. We hold that this is a difficult time for many in our sector and world; we also hold a hope that this time can unite and inspire us to work together to build a better world. Minnesota already has all the ingredients - a strong public will, love of one’s neighbor, a drive to do what is right. Minnesota often ranks at the top for civic engagement, volunteerism, and charitable giving each year. Without knowing it, we as leaders of nonprofits have been training for this moment for decades. As nonprofits, we often take a whole systems approach to addressing complex needs. In the coming months as we heal and rebuild, we an opportunity to rebuild systems in a way the centers those who have been furthest from justice so we all can thrive. And it starts with funding...

We wish you the best of luck in your grantseeking endeavors and thank you for your hard work on behalf of Minnesota’s communities.

Sincerely,

Jon Pratt, Kari Aanestad, Grace Fogland, and the whole MCN Team
The Minnesota Council of Nonprofits (MCN) has been producing the Minnesota Grants Directory for over 25 years. This is the first ever Special Edition made available digitally and free for all in light of the unprecedented circumstances posed by the impacts of COVID-19. MCN’s Advancement and Member Services teams have been compiling information on responsive grant opportunities as they become available, both within Minnesota and nationally.

As of the publication date of the fourth version of the Special Edition Grants Directory (April 22, 2020), a number of funders have announced that they have committed funds to disaster relief. In most cases, however, the processes for applying to and accessing these funds is still being determined.

Due to the rapidly evolving nature of this work, MCN intends on publishing multiple versions of this Special Edition Grants Directory in order to equip Minnesota’s nonprofits with the latest information. Nonprofit grantseekers are encouraged to visit www.minnesotanonprofits.org to download the latest version of this directory.

The community is welcome to submit information about additional funding opportunities by email at grants@minnesotanonprofits.org and comments at www.grantadvisor.org.

Important Information
Deadlines: Healthy Start deadline: April 23 at 1 p.m. CT. Applications for the COVID-19 rapid response fund have closed due to the overwhelming response.

Description of Funding Available
The Foundation has updated their Healthy Start funding deadline and guidelines in response to the COVID-19 situation. The funding opportunity will still primarily focus on access to quality early childhood care and education, but has shifted slightly to prioritize work that addresses the unique needs of the community as a result of COVID-19.

Other major changes include: the application deadline being extended by three weeks to April 23rd, and grants changed from a 2-year cycle to a one-year cycle.

The Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota Foundation created a $750,000 COVID-19 rapid response fund aimed at addressing immediate needs due to the global pandemic. The Foundation received an overwhelming response of nearly 200 applications from across Minnesota and funding requests totaling more than $3.6 million — more than four times the funds available. Due to that overwhelming response, the application process has been closed. Applications that have already been submitted in the online system will be reviewed and considered for funding, but no new applications will be accepted.

The Bush Foundation is cancelling their 2020 Bush Prize program in order to redirect funds to aid people dealing with the economic effects of the outbreak in the Foundation's region. All other grant programs will continue as planned.

The Bush Foundation will expedite consideration for Community Innovation grant applications related to COVID-19. Community Innovation grants fund problem-solving projects that make the region better for everyone. Grantees work inclusively with their communities, make the most of existing resources, and collaborate with other organizations as part of their problem-solving process. Community Innovation grants may be awarded to 501(c)(3) public charities or government entities (including schools). Coalitions or collaboratives are eligible to apply, but only one organization may receive the grant.

The Foundation staff also knows their grantees are balancing a lot right now, and want to support them by offering flexibility around their grants. They will be reaching out to all current grantees with more information, and to work with them to adapt grant terms as needed.

The Foundation has already committed to supporting the launch of the Minnesota Disaster Recovery Fund and the Coronavirus Response Fund at the South Dakota Community Foundation with major contributions. These funds will help address needs that arise in those states due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

How nonprofits should share information about what they are experiencing in their organizations and communities:

The Foundation staff are actively looking for ways to assist communities around their region during this time of need. They encourage grantees to reach out directly to their contact at the Bush Foundation. Other community organizations are encouraged to contact the Foundation by emailing communications@bushfoundation.org with any questions or suggestions for how they can be most useful to people experiencing hardship during this difficult time.

CAPI is moving into a Triage Model, where several staff will be trained in all services so those in need can talk to one person and be enrolled in SNAP, get health insurance, apply for unemployment, receive assistance with filling out census forms, and more. CAPI is also partnering with other multiethnic groups in Minnesota to help provide quality and accessible services, such as language accessibility. Staff are able to speak different languages, and can help non-English speakers with rental assistance, navigating MNSure, and access other resources the City of Minneapolis is providing during this time. CAPI also runs an Asian-specific food shelf and a grocery delivery program. In order to serve a wide range of people, CAPI has expanded their services to anyone in the community, and are assisting anyone who calls.

Description of Funding Available

Hunger Solutions Minnesota was recently named an intermediary for the Minnesota Disaster Relief Fund (MDRF). The purpose of these funds is to address immediate needs — thus the staff’s expectation is that grants awarded will be put to use as quickly as possible. Emergency funds are available to food shelves and community-based hunger relief partners across Minnesota to support new projects or service expansions that address emerging community food needs and service gaps due to the COVID-19 crisis. The following are two types of service providers for which funds are intended:

- Food Shelves: Resources for traditional food shelves (those eligible for state funds) to address the need for new and innovative expansion efforts, such as opening additional locations as gaps arise and creating or expanding mobile food sites or food delivery systems.
- Hunger Relief Partners and Non-traditional Food Programs: Resources for hunger relief partners and nontraditional food programs (such as college campus or faith-based efforts) to initiate new projects or expand services to address gaps in meeting the community’s immediate hunger needs as they emerge.

Hunger Solutions Minnesota recognizes inequities in the food systems are only exacerbated by this current crisis, and will apply an equity lens in the grant review process. The average grant size anticipated is between $5,000 - $10,000 to ensure an opportunity for resources to be made available to as many communities as possible. Deadlines: Regular 2020 grant deadlines are: May 1, August 7, and November 6

Description of Funding Available
The Foundation was named an intermediary for the Minnesota Disaster Relief Fund (MDRF), but have distributed all available funds. They are currently continuing grantmaking with their own remaining grant budget (which is small), and others that they can raise. Due to the COVID-19 health crisis, the Foundation has temporarily changed their grant guidelines and deadlines. They have also significantly changed their focus – from an historic emphasis on capacity building and community engagement, to support for nonprofits providing immediate access to essential needs (food, shelter, access to medical care, etc.) to serve those most affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. These temporary guidelines will extend until at least September 2020. Staff anticipate that applications will be highly competitive, but will strive to achieve geographical diversity (impact across their entire 14 county/163 City/two sovereign Tribal nations) in selecting which proposals they can fund.

Deadlines: Applications for the OneMPLS Fund have closed due to the overwhelming response.

Description of Funding Available
The Foundation created a OneMPLS Fund designed to be nimble and responsive to emerging needs aligned with the Foundation's mission. The grants supported local nonprofit organizations that:

- Provided services to address the economic impact on individuals whose employment has been reduced or eliminated as a result of the pandemic (particularly the most vulnerable segments of the workforce);
- Met basic needs for vulnerable populations, particularly older adults and youth.

The Foundation received a response of roughly 300 organizations totaling more than $13 million in funding requests — far more than they have available to grant. Due to that overwhelming response, the application process for OneMPLS grants has been paused so the Minneapolis Foundation can plan their next phase of community investment. Any applications that remain when the portal closes will be reviewed at a slower rate; they will notify those organizations of grantmaking decisions in the coming weeks, but no new applications will be accepted.

A complete list of grant recipients can be found at their website.

No changes to current grants, a list of which can be found here: https://smifoundation.org/grants/. The Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation has a COVID-19 response page that lists all the ways they are assisting their region: https://smifoundation.org/covid-19/. SMIF, in partnership with its five Minnesota Initiative Foundation partners, also launched the Emergency Child Care Grant program to provide immediate financial support to licensed family and center-based child care providers in Greater Minnesota. First-round grant awards have depleted the available funds of $150,000, however Foundation staff continue to seek additional resources, and will act on a second round of grants should funding be secured.

Description of Funding Available
The Springboard for the Arts was recently named an intermediary for the Minnesota Disaster Relief Fund (MDRF). They have created a Personal Emergency Relief Fund dedicated to supporting MN artists who experience career-threatening emergencies or unanticipated, emergency expenses. Artists can request up to $500 of immediate relief funding to compensate for cancelled work that was scheduled and lost. Funds will be distributed via check or Paypal. Because this is an economic as well as a health crisis, and thus exacerbates existing systemic disparities, Springboard for the Arts is prioritizing artists who identify as Black, Indigenous, or People of Color (BIPOC), Native, LGBTQIA+, from the disability community as well as those who are immuno-compromised, and artists from rural communities. At this time, the fund is not available to compensate for future gigs or potential loss of business. More information can be found here: https://springboardforthearts.org/coronavirus/.

The Process for Applying for Funds
Minnesota artists may apply by filling out a form via the website: https://springboardforthearts.org/additional-resources/personal-emergency-relief-fund/

Other ways the Foundation is Responding to the impacts of COVID-19
They are hosting biweekly online convenings for organizations across North America who have started emergency funds, providing space for connection, brainstorming, and sharing resources. Artists are also telling staff they need immediate, emergency help with business strategies, answering legal and financial questions, and processing what this moment means for their livelihood and work. To that end, Springboard for the Arts has launched:

1. One-on-one career counseling and support for artists and artist-led businesses and projects, conducted via phone or online through Springboard's roster of professional career coaches, who are all practicing artists themselves while referrals will be made to relevant legal, accounting and other experts.
2. Online technical assistance sessions: Q&As, workshops, group calls on topics relevant to creative businesses dealing with the COVID-19 crisis, including legal resources on topics like unemployment insurance, e-commerce, and financial planning. Staff are continuing to develop responsive, strategic programming with the aims of keeping artists working and providing space for community to come together, gain necessary skills and tools, and experience art.

Other updated emergency resources can be found on the website: https://springboardforthearts.org/coronavirus/.

The Winona Community Foundation has activated an emergency COVID-19 Relief Fund for nonprofits. Funds donated here will go out through partner agencies and a grant process. The goal is to be flexible and timely to get money out to nonprofits who are serving clients in need directly. The COVID-19 Relief Fund will fund key areas such homelessness during the pandemic. Any remaining funds will be distributed to nonprofit organizations working to reestablish operations post-COVID-19.

Youthprise is offering support through two main programs:

- Health and Nutrition Support: The snacks and meals provided via after-school programs or school serve as many young people’s primary sources of nutrition. Youthprise is offering support through facilitating access to nutrition sites for young people during widespread school closures. Families with children 18 and under can receive a week’s worth of food at a time.
- Distance Learning and Education Support: Youthprise is facilitating sending laptops and other distance learning supports directly to families who are preparing for distance learning and may not have access to a laptop at home.
